Address Verification and Emergency Text Messaging

Students may be presented with a page to update address, phone, and emergency contact information in case of emergencies someone can be contacted. The page also allows the student to Opt out of text messaging. The student may also navigate to this page to update their information.